StradleyRonon

Experience

A 75-Year Partnership with Delaware Investments

In 1928, Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young, LLP name partner Andrew Young established one of the first mutual funds in the United States, the Wellington Fund. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Young helped form the investment firm Delaware Management Company and also formed their flagship fund, the Delaware Fund. Stradley Ronon continues to represent both Delaware Investments and the Delaware Investments Funds today, serving as their mutual funds and advisor counsel.

Related People

- Bruce G. Leto
- Lisa A. Duda
- Michael D. Mabry
- Jonathan M. Kopcsik
- Taylor Brody

Related Services

- Investment Management