Delta Star “Transforms” Business with Canadian Acquisition

Stradley Ronon’s corporate & securities team closed Delta Star’s purchase of Alstom’s transformer manufacturing facility in Quebec, Canada. The acquisition positions Delta Star to become a significant player in the Canadian transformer market.

Headquartered in Lynchburg, Virginia, Delta Star, Inc. is a leading producer of medium power transformers and the premier manufacturer of mobile substations in North America. Stradley assisted Delta Star in completing the deal transaction in July.
