Experience

ISWG Ventures Into New Territory With Site Acquisition

Stradley Ronon represented ISWG LP in its multimillion-dollar acquisition of a 45-acre industrial site on the Delaware River just north of the Commodore Barry Bridge. The client is under common ownership with the operating entity, which operates an extensive warehousing and shipping company at the property. The transaction involved traditional financing through a commercial loan along with SBA financing.

Related People

- Kevin R. Boyle
- Catherine M. Ward

Related Services

- Corporate, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Securities
- Financial Services
- Real Estate
- Corporate
- Litigation