

Justin Danziger

Associate

jdanziger@stradley.com

New York, NY: 212.404.0629

Justin Danziger represents financial institutions in an array of civil litigation matters in state and federal court, with a concentration on consumer financial services litigation. He combines practical legal strategies with industry knowledge to support and deliver favorable outcomes for clients across the financial services sector.

Justin's experience includes representing clients in a wide range of civil litigation matters from pre-suit investigation through trial preparation. His experience gives him a practical understanding of risk management and efficient case strategy on behalf of his clients.

Prior to joining Stradley Ronon, Justin was a litigation associate in the New York office of a Washington, D.C.-based midsize law firm. He was also previously a summer clerk with Stradley Ronon and a law clerk at a Philadelphia-based midsize firm.
