Experience

Litigation: Pennsylvania Procurement Code Prohibits Performance Bond

University of Pittsburgh v. United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co. – We successfully argued that the Pennsylvania Procurement Code prohibited the assignment by an owner of its rights under a performance bond to an assignee, depriving the assignee of standing to assert a bond claim.

Related People

- Jeffrey D. Grossman

Related Services

- Construction
- Litigation
- Trial Practice