Nonprofits Receive Funding from Harrisburg

Stradley Ronon's government affairs team represented various nonprofit community organizations, including AIM Academy and Delaware River Waterfront Corporation, before state legislators and governor's staff regarding state capital budget funding, transportation funding and other government grants. AIM Academy is an independent co-educational college prep school serving students with language-based learning differences in grades 1-12. AIM was founded in 2006 and moved to its current location in Whitemarsh, Pennsylvania in 2012. The Delaware River Waterfront Corporation (DRWC) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit corporation organized exclusively for the benefit of the City of Philadelphia and its citizens. DRWC intends to transform the central Delaware River waterfront into a vibrant destination location for recreational, cultural and commercial activities for the residents and visitors of Philadelphia.
