New York, NY: 212.404.0622

Susan Sidd leverages her decades of in-house experience in financial services to advise clients in the broker-dealer and investment management arenas. Through her leadership role at a major investment bank and subsequent roles as general counsel of hedge fund managers and trading firms, Susan is well-positioned to guide sell-side and buy-side clients of all sizes seeking regulatory, legal and compliance advice and solutions.

As a managing director at Goldman Sachs and general counsel at proprietary trading and hedge fund management firms, Susan has worked closely with business and support teams on global corporate and business structure, new product and business line integration, regulatory relations, regulatory exams and inquiries, compliance infrastructure, financing and contracts negotiation, and litigation and enforcement matters. She has also worked with traders and capital markets groups to develop derivative products to meet trading and hedging needs. Susan combines technical know-how and relationship acumen to provide efficient, actionable advice in line with clients' objectives.
